Mission Statement

Goliad's Memorial Auditorium is a Texas treasure, dually registered on the National Register and as a Registered Texas Historical Landmark "RTHL". The facility has stood tall since 1936.

The appointed committee is charged with keeping the auditorium historical integrity intact, therefore will follow the guidelines set forth by the Texas Historical Commission and the Secretary of the Interior to ensure it remains a reminder of its rich history its active present and glorious future.

Goliad Memorial Auditorium's Intent and Purpose

The Goliad Auditorium was erected jointly by the governments of the United States and the State of Texas in 1936 to commemorate one hundred years of Texas Independence. Sponsored by the State of Texas, USA and WPA sidewalks, parking areas, an auditorium stage, a museum, clubhouse outdoor athletic field and an arena were constructed. The façade and interior are embellished to blend with the reconstructed Mission of Espiritu Santo and the outdoor arenas were inviting to athletic groups, livestock lovers and rodeos. This fine lady has hosted quinceneras, basketball games, weddings, fashion shows, gun shows, numerous family gatherings and community functions. She, the Goliad Memorial Auditorium, is a proud, historical edifice that can hold formal events i.e. political functions, fund raising for nonprofits and religious activities. She can also be used for community-based events such as banquets, dances auctions and birthday parties. She has multiple purposes serving not only as a reminder of Goliad's eventful past, but currently as a community asset, as well as a pillar of the community that allows for entertainment, enlightenment, respect for agricultural endeavors and enrichment. Goliad's past, present and future can be acknowledged in and through the Goliad Memorial Auditorium as one wonders at her grandeur while strolling on her grounds.

Jointly owned by the City of Goliad and Goliad County a public facility to be enjoyed by all. Admire her, care for her and be aware of her importance. She is user friendly but not to be abused.

Lessee’s Responsibilities Before and After an Event

1. Deposit is required to hold event date.
2. Rental fee must be paid no later than two (2) weeks prior to the event; this means that the rental fee must be paid no later than the tenth (10th) business day before the event.
3. Lessee will immediately report any electrical, plumbing, or mechanical problems to the Emergency On Call Representative 361-645-4945.
4. The non-compliance/damage deposit will be fully refunded to the Lessee, provided that Lessee is in full compliance with all of the rules listed here and that no damage has occurred. Checks will be mailed within fourteen (14) business days following the event.
5. Failure to comply with all rules outlined in the rental agreement will result in the future of the deposit.
6. If damage of any kind occurs to the auditorium during the rental period, the cost of repairs will be deducted from the deposit refund. Lessee will be responsible for paying the damage costs that exceed the amount of the deposit.
7. Cancelations, to be reimbursed the Lessee must give 30 days' notice prior to event to receive 50% of deposit otherwise monies paid is forfeited.
8. An event supervisor will be on site for a walk through when Lessee picks up auditorium and dumpster keys. The event supervisor is not responsible for assisting with clean-up during or following the event. S/he will monitor compliance with all rules outlined in the rental agreement. S/he will also inspect the facility after the event for compliance with clean-up and storage rules and for damage to the auditorium.
9. The Lessee will place the provided plastic trash cans, with liners, outside the auditorium, near the front doors, to encourage attendees to dispose of all trash as they are leaving the event. Trash bags should be tied and placed in the dumpster. Lessee is also responsible for cleaning the grounds immediately outside the auditorium of any trash resulting from the event.
10. All food and supplies shall be removed from the premises, and the kitchen counters, sinks, and refrigerator will be wiped clean, if used.
11. All food and beverage containers (plates, bowls, cups, and such) must be placed in trash bags, which are to be tied and placed in the dumpster.
12. All extra wooden tables, metal chair, and poly-resin chairs must be returned to the basement.

13. All table coverings must be removed, and tables and chairs must be wiped down and stacked on the table trucks and chair trucks. Candle wax must be gently removed from tables without damaging the surfaces. Failure to stack and store tables and chairs will result in $100.00 being deducted from the non-compliance/damage deposit. "Please stack chairs in sets of 10."
14. All items brought to the auditorium by Lessee must be removed immediately following the event. If Lessee needs extra time, arrangements may be made before the event for removal on the following day; Lessee must contact the auditorium representative prior to the event, however, all items must be removed no later than 10:00 AM on the following day.
Please note: Items not removed will be disposed of.
If two events are scheduled for consecutive days, this extended time will not be allowed. Lessee for the first event will be required to remove everything immediately following the event, and Lessee for the second event will not be allowed to enter the auditorium before 7:00 AM on the day of the event.
15. "All doors must be locked, and keys must be returned to City Hall on the first business day following the event." Failure to return the keys will result in the cost of rekeying the locks being deducted from the non-compliance/damage deposit.
